The Home of Golf

WELCOME TO ST ANDREWS

For a small town, St Andrews has made a big name for itself: firstly as a religious centre and place of pilgrimage, then as Scotland's oldest university town. But it is its status as the Home of Golf that has propelled it to even greater fame and today's pilgrims mostly arrive with a set of clubs in hand.

Nonetheless it's a wonderful place to visit even if you've no interest in the game, with impressive medieval ruins, stately university buildings, idyllic white sands and excellent restaurants.

GOLF

PRACTICE ROUND at ST ANDREWS LINKS

Castle Course

The newest addition to St Andrews Links, The Castle Course opened in 2008 becoming the seventh course at the Home of Golf. Set on a rugged cliff-top with spectacular views over St Andrews, it offers a memorable golfing experience.

“Golfing on the edge of paradise with views to die for. What more can you ask for?”

THE OLD COURSE

The oldest and most iconic golf course in the world. The Swilcan Bridge and Hell Bunker are recognized across the globe.

“I fell in love with it the first day I played it. There's just no other golf course that is even remotely close”

– Jack Nicklaus

KINGSBARN'S GOLF LINKS

Opened in 2000, Kingsbarns is one of the newer golf courses in Scotland, but it has quickly garnered a large following.

Despite being in the company of some of the finest links in the world, the course has managed to distinguish itself as one of Scotland's must-play venues.

DUMBARNIE LINKS

Dumbarnie Links has quickly become one of the most talked-about courses in Scottish golf. Located on the north shore of the Firth of Forth, a mere 9 miles from the centre of St Andrews, it occupies some of the most revered links turf in the whole of the world.

This unquestionably unique Clive Clark masterpiece is sure to become one of the “bucket list” courses in Scotland.

The Dukes

The natural heathland setting amongst established trees, gorse and heather forms a unique golf experience. First laid out in 1995, the panoramic views over the town of St. Andrews and the Bay beyond are stunning.

The thrill of the tactical design of risk-and-reward golf is subtly threaded through 18 holes to suit every level of player.
